FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

John Avery, Executive Director
Michigan Economic Developers Association
PH: 517-241-0011
meda@medaweb.org

DAVID SCHREIBER RE-ELECTED TO THREE-YEAR TERM ON MEDA BOARD OF DIRECTORS

Lansing, Michigan – December 17, 2019 – David Schreiber, Business Development Manager, Wayne County Economic Development Corporation, has been re-elected to a 3-year term on the Board of Directors of the Michigan Economic Developers Association (MEDA) starting in 2020, the year that the MEDA will celebrate its 60th Anniversary. MEDA is a professional society with members throughout the state that attract and grow business, create and retain jobs, and make our communities a better place to live. Dave has been a member of MEDA for a majority of his career is currently a co-chair of the Association’s Advocacy Committee.

Dave has been practicing economic development since 1983, when he started as Site Location Analyst at the Washtenaw Development Council. Starting in 1986, he served 30 years in Oakland County. Roles included being Chief Strategist, assisting in the creation of such noted programs as Medical Main Street and Automation Alley, and being Vice Chairman of the Michigan Global Partnership – Asian Division, where he led trade missions in Japan and Korea. Today, Dave is working with a powerful team in Wayne County to make a make a positive impact on this historical County, which has the largest population in Michigan.

Mr. Schreiber exemplifies leadership in MEDA. He joined MEDA early in his career and has remained very active. His service includes the Education, Annual Meeting, and Advocacy Committees, as well as past service on the Board of Directors before the membership elected him back on the Board in 2017. As co-chair of the Advocacy Committee, Dave guides initiatives that not only educate economic developers on the latest laws and initiatives that affect their profession, but also raise awareness for the benefits of economic development to policy-makers and stakeholders.

Dave joins two Board Members James McBryde, President and CEO, Middle Michigan Development Corporation, who was re-elected this year, and Samantha Seimer, Economic Development Director, City of Farmington Hills, who was elected for the first time this year.

ABOUT MEDA
The Michigan Economic Developers Association has partnered with economic developers to grow their community in Michigan for 60 years. By providing education, networking, and advocacy, MEDA makes it possible for professionals to do their job more effectively and efficiently. To learn more, see www.medaweb.org.

###